AGAINST ALL FORMS OF DOMINATION AND EXPLOITATION

MONDAY SEPTEMBER 2ND

COUNTER CARTOGRAPHIES COLLECTIVE PRESENTS: "WHAT IS THE UNIVERSITY?"
• 5-7 PM • THE PIT •

Topics will include how to map your education, borders and UNC, and what the effects of UNC are in terms of investments, debt, and gentrification.

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 3RD

GENDER AND MIGRATION FLASH SEMINAR
• 5-6 PM • FPG STUDENT UNION • ROOM 3102 •

Presented by professors Ariana Vigil, Altha Cravey, with guest speaker.

STRIKE THE HIKES: STUDENT ORGANIZING AGAINST TUITION INCREASES
• 7 PM • STEPS OF WILSON LIBRARY •

These days national student debt hovers around $1.1 trillion, thus crippling the futures of a generation—but UNC keeps raising tuition! Come sit down with SDS and get involved with the movement for an affordable and accessible education!

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 4TH

PANEL ON INTERNATIONALIST BOOKS AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS IN CHAPEL HILL & CARRBORO
• 4 PM • INTERNATIONALIST BOOKS • 405 W FRANKLIN ST. •

This panel features volunteers from the Internationalist, Prison Books Collective, Croatan Earth First!, the Trans Discussion Group, and other projects. This event is a great opportunity for new students to learn about resistance history in town and to connect with local organizing projects.

THE POLICE STATE IN NORTH CAROLINA
• 6 PM • FPG STUDENT UNION, ROOM 2420 •

From the civil rights movement to Occupy, police in North Carolina have spied on activists through undercover officers, surveillance cameras, and now Facebook profiles. Journalist Eric Ginsburg will detail the tactics used against activists in North Carolina and how civil liberties are under attack.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 5TH

CRIMETHINC. PRESENTS: "CAPITALISM & RESISTANCE IN THE 21ST CENTURY"
• 7 PM • FPG STUDENT UNION • ROOM 3408 •

Tunisia, Egypt, Greece, Spain, Occupy, Turkey, Brazil. Whether against austerity or exploitative development, resistance is spreading. Join us for a high-energy discussion of how capitalism has changed, recent examples of resistance here and overseas, and anti-capitalist strategies for the 21st century.

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 6TH

THE MARCH AGAINST BULLSHIT
• 6 PM • THE PIT •

Whether your fight is against tuition hikes, white supremacy, borders, rape culture, capitalism, homophobia, or any other kind of bullshit, YOU ARE INVITED to speak out against what you hate most about UNC and to take action with others who want to see change.

PUNK SHOW! FEAT. RUBRICS, DIRTY KILLS, HOT MESS MONSTER AND LESSER LIFE
